THE PHILIPPINE BILL

Another Day of Criticism and Defense in the Senate.

MR. M'COMAS SPEAKS

He Defends the Administration and Charges to Democrats the Responsibility of Conditions—Tillman Defends His Party.

Washington, May 7.—When the senate convened Wednesday, Mr. Cullom chairman of the foreign relations committee reported favorably a bill making appropriations for the diplomatic and consular service of the United States in the Republic of Cuba. The salary of the minister is fixed at $12,000.

Mr. Spooner of Wisconsin offered an additional appropriation amendment not exceeding $5000 a year for rental of proper legation residence in Havana. It was agreed to. As an amendment the bill was passed.

Mr. Hawley, the chairman of the committee on military affairs, reported the army appropriation bill.

Mr. Culberson of Texas inquired whether the secretary of war had responded to his resolution of the first instant concerning the orders of Generals Bell and Smith. When informed that no response had been received he offered a resolution directing the secretary of war to send the senate copies of all orders, instructions, letters and cablegrams relating to concentration in the Philippines and also copies of all orders, instructions, letters and cablegrams relating to the order of Brig. Gen. Jacob H. Smith, to Maj. Waller.

Mr. Lodge said that as a resolution of which the above was an amplification had been asked only five days ago he would ask that the resolution go over. It was so ordered.

Consideration of the Philippines bill then was resumed and Mr. McComas of Maryland, addressed the senate in support of the measure.

After declaring that the war with Spain had been forced upon the United States by the Democrats and that the Philippines had come to this country through that war, Mr. McComas asserted that in the debates on the Philippine question the Democrats ignored all history and ignored the treaty which they helped to ratify. He said they proposed to undo the glorious work of the past four years; to denounce the treaty, to disgrace the army and navy, to throw away the sovereignty over the islands, to defy the verdict of the people; to reverse the supreme court and to scuttle, amid the taunts and jeers of all the nations of the world.

SENATOR TILLMAN.

The benefit provided in the pending bill, he said was being obstructed by the minority of the senate, the members of which confined their speeches to denunciations of the army. He said that all humane men deplored the administration of the water cure by Americans, but he insisted it was not patriotic to clutch at every charge made against our army. He made a warm defense of Gen. Funston and paid a high tribute to his courage and patriotism. Mr. McComas paid a high tribute to President McKinley.

gent Roosevelt and Secretary Root. Discussing alleged cruelties, said to be practised by American troops in the Philippines, Mr. McComas adverted to many such instances during the civil war—instances furnished by both the Union and Confederate forces. He referred to Sherman's march to the sea "lighted by the burning of bridges and hamlets," and to the horrors of Andersonville and Libby prisons. He urged as to those prisons that the Confederate soldiers as a body were not to be charged with the acts of a few. He spoke, he said, in defense of the soldiers of both the north and the south. The army in the Philippines he contended, was no more justly to be charged with approving of isolated instances of cruelty than were the armies of the north and south during the civil war. He paid a tribute to the humanity of the American troops in the Philippines and cited many instances of tenderness and mercy.

Mr. McComas said the policy of the minority was one of scuttle and that they steal away from the islands and leave them to anarchy and imperialism.

Referring to elections in the south Mr. McComas said that the senators from South Carolina and Mississippi (Tillman and Money) cried out against the small percentage of voters in the early elections in the Philippines. After discussing the election methods in the states referred to he said:

"We behold senators from the two states where there is less popular liberty than in any others shouting loudest for constitutional liberty on this side of the globe."

In conclusion he said: "The administration of President Roosevelt will not haul down our flag in the Philippines. This administration will follow the path wherein President McKinley walked."

While Mr. McComas was referring to some of the cruelties of war inflicted on both sides during the civil war, Mr. Tillman protested against the injectment into the debate of statements likely to stir up bitterness.

Mr. McComas had referred to instances of cruelties committed by both sides in the civil war simply, he said, with the idea that war itself was most cruel.

Mr. Tillman replied to some of the statements made by the Maryland senator, with reference to election methods of South Carolina and Mississippi as compared with the outrages said to have been committed by American soldiers in the Philippines. He declared that Mr. McComas had passed over with complacency the "outrages and iniquities and barbarities," which had been, he said, committed by American soldiers. He discussed the situation in the south and declared that if it had been known prior to the conclusion of the war that in the south the reins of government were to be turned over to the negroes there would have been inaugurated a guerrilla warfare in the swamps of the south that would have been kept up indefinitely.

In his own state there were 200,000 more negroes than whites and in Mississippi 300,000 more colored than white people. In order to maintain their self-respect, the whites, he declared, were obliged to take the reins of government in the south by whatever means they could, using the shotgun as one means.

He insisted that the Republican contention was that the negroes of the south were fitten to govern in this country, but that the Filipinos were not fitten to govern themselves in the Philippines. In the United States, he maintained, a serious problem confronted the government—the negro problem—and we might better try to solve that than to hunt for trouble in the Philippines.

"Throughout the south," said he, "there is a horror hanging over every household for this awful fear of rapine. And you turn your back upon it and march to the east where you murder and butcher and torture the poor Filipinos. And you are doing all this in the name of Christianity and humanity and liberty. I can see the hypocrisy oozing out of you all over."

"You are taunting us," said he, "about our treatment of the negroes of the south, hoping at the same time that we will not interfere with your game of devilry in the Philippines. We hope you will help us of the south to get rid of the threat of negro domination which hangs over us like the sword of Damocles. Lynchings will continue as long as those fiends rape our women."

Mr. Burton of Kansas replied to Mr. Tillman, criticising severely his remarks, and Mr. Clapp of Minnesota put in a few words of protest.

The House.

Washington, May 7.—Some routine business was transacted in the house Wednesday, the senate amendment to the bill to authorize municipalities in the Indian Territory with 2000 inhabitants or over, to issue bonds, was agreed to.

Mr. Sherman of New York called up the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill.

Mr. Little of Arkansas, one of the conferees did not sign the report owing to his opposition to certain of its features and it was arranged that there should be an hour's debate upon a side.

The conference report was adopted, 97 to 85.

The house then began consideration of the bill to provide enabling acts for the admission of the territories of Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma. Mr. Knox of Massachusetts, chairman.

Man Attempts Suicide Because He Fails to Learn of His Parents.

New York, May 8.—Disheartened at his failure after years of endeavor to learn who his parents were, Henry King, 30 years old, attempted suicide in the vestibule of the New York Foundling asylum. The doctors say he probably will recover.

King was a mere child when taken to the Foundling asylum, where he was kept until 1878, when, at the age of 6, he was sent to a Maryland farm. There he remained until he was of age. As he grew to manhood he felt that his parentage should not be veiled in uncertainty. Two years ago he brought an action to compel the asylum authorities to disclose the identity of his parents. The action brought forth the response that it would be impossible to tell. For days and weeks after this defeat King, then 23, frequented the asylum.

A growing belief that he was held to a fortune stimulated his desire, and on one occasion made him so persistent that he was arrested.

Every day he called and repeated his questions, until finally, discouraged at his lack of success, he swallowed morphine in the hallway of the home.

Austin, May 8.—There was argued Wednesday in the Fifty-third district court the case of the state of Texas vs. Thomas O'Connor, to recover 19,410 acres of land in Webb county granted by the king of Spain at the time Spain owned Texas. The old Spanish land grants are attacked on the grounds that they are not valid in Texas, and five other suits are pending to recover lands in Webb county as follows: From Claude Hamilton et al. 11,270 acres, from Procopia Garza de Villaral et al. 29,666 acres, from J. Anderson, a fugitive from justice at Paris, Tex., since 1890. He was taken to Texas and discharged. It is alleged that Childers had informed on Huddleston and the latter was arrested on suspicion of having killed Childers through revenge. A writ of habeas corpus has been applied for.

BECOMES DESPERATE.

Man Attempts Suicide Because He Fails to Learn of His Parents.

New York, May 8.—Disheartened at his failure after years of endeavor to learn who his parents were, Henry King, 30 years old, attempted suicide in the vestibule of the New York Foundling asylum. The doctors say he probably will recover.

King was a mere child when taken to the Foundling asylum, where he was kept until 1878, when, at the age of 6, he was sent to a Maryland farm. There he remained until he was of age. As he grew to manhood he felt that his parentage should not be veiled in uncertainty. Two years ago he brought an action to compel the asylum authorities to disclose the identity of his parents. The action brought forth the response that it would be impossible to tell. For days and weeks after this defeat King, then 28, frequented the asylum.

A growing belief that he was held to a fortune stimulated his desire, and on one occasion made him so persistent that he was arrested.

Every day he called and repeated his questions, until finally, discouraged at his lack of success, he swallowed morphine in the hallway of the home.

A. Ortiz et al. 139,482 acres, from Juan Manuel Flores et al. 22,240 acres and from Juan Vela Cuellar et al. 8852 acres.

Anderson, a fugitive from justice at Paris, Tex., since 1890. He was taken to Texas and discharged. It is alleged that Childers had informed on Huddleston and the latter was arrested on suspicion of having killed Childers through revenge. A writ of habeas corpus has been applied for.
